POETRY.

BUY YOUR OWN CHERRIES.

A TEMPERANCE TALE.

'Twas a scorching day—about July,

When Lewis, the carpenter, feeling dry,

Took out some pennies, and looking at me,

"'Tis just the price of a pint," said he;

"To the 'Golden Eagle' over the way, I'll go and have a glass today."

Upon the counter near him, stood

A plate of cherries, ripe and good,

At sight of which, what did he do

But reach his hand to take a few.

The landlady's voice thrilled through his head,

"You touch them if you dare!" she said;

"I should indeed much like to know Why in the world you are acting so!

A pretty liberty, sir, to take!

I hope some apology you will make."

"Well, missus! all I have to say,

I'm very thirsty this sultry day,

And I was thinking as how you see,

I'd wet my whistle with two or three."

"I tell you, you'd better not try it on!"

"O surely you'll give me a few," said John,

Fox, though she greatly in anger spoke,

He thought the landlady surely in joke.

He left them, sir, for my children's treat,

They're not for such as you to eat."

The Ypsilanti Commercial.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY, BY G. R. PATTERSON.
NOW IS THE ACCEPTED HOUR.

The great battle for Equal Rights, begun in the inception of this Government, is not yet won. The past four years of carnage and strife was thought by many to have ended the contest. It was naturally supposed, when the rebels grounded their arms and acknowledged themselves whipped, that the victory was complete. It would then have seemed almost a crime to harbor the thought that the rebel States could be reinstated only after ample and just guarantees. A reconstruction based in justice to all men was at that time easily attainable. But our President, not our choice, but made President by a sad event, proved recreant. No party since the morning of Creation was ever so entirely cheated as the Republican party by Johnson. Through his recreancy there is danger that the conquered will prove the victors. Our only hope is in God and Congress. Congress behaves well. It deserves the praise of the people. The adoption of the Civil Rights bill over the President's veto will forever immortalize this Congress. The great pending issue is—SHALL UNREPRESENTED REBELS WITHOUT PRACTICAL, COMPREHENSIVE AND JUST GUARANTEES, BE ADMITTED TO PARTICIPATE IN MAKING LAWS FOR THE LOYAL PEOPLE? The President says, yes—Congress, nay. We reiterate the voice of Congress, nay!

We wish the question of "Equal Rights" to be settled for all generations to come. Once more, if need be, we enter the fierce political conflict, and patiently abide the issue. If the flame of civil war result, we shall not get despair, for the devil of despotic wrongs is only exorcised by the tearing and rending of the oppressor.

"We wait beneath the furnace blast The pangs of transformation;
Not patiently doth God rest,
And mold anew the nation.
Hot burns the fire,
Where wrongs expire;
Nor spares the hand
That from the land Uproots the ancient evil."

We believe that the great majority of the men and women who bravely stood by the flag, and the soldiers who bore it on to victory during the late war, mean to persevere in the grand struggle for equal human rights. They profoundly realize that

"Freedom's battle, once begun, Requiescent feel no need to son, Though hallo'd oft, is ever won."
[This in strong faith we enter upon the momentous ensuing political conflict. And to do our part, all of it, we propose to let new subscribers have the COMMERCIAL from the 12th of May until the 10th of November, the first issue after the election, six months, for 75 cents.]

CURRENT EVENTS.

The peace of Germany trembles in the balance. A war between Austria and Prussia would endanger the peace of Europe. Napoleon has at last been driven to recall his troops from Mexico. They are to be withdrawn by installments, and a future invasion by any European power will be regarded by the Government of the United States as a declaration of war. The conflagration at Detroit involving such immense loss of property and life, is still the theme of comment. On the 18th of 1st October the Michigan Central was a scene of ruin from the same cause, at a loss of $1,000,000. It should be a warning to these companies. How can we own our city? Have we inflammable articles kept in our stores, endangering the destruction, at almost any hour, of the main portion of the city? It would be well for the Common Council to investigate an investigation. —There has been another bold robbery at Cadiz, Ohio. Six burglars entered the residence of the Cashier, gagged and bound him and wife, secured keys to the National bank, and thus robbed it of $300,000 in Bonds and $50,000 in deposits. A reward of $20,000 has been offered for the arrest of the robbers.

—Prominent Union men throughout the South are being compelled to leave. To have stood by the National flag is enough to procure the banishment of a white man, and the cruel, summary death of a black man. The President's love for the soldiers seems to be a transparent humbug. In Pennsylvania he favors the election of an unmitigated stay-at-home copperhead over the brave Gen. Gerry. He is constantly choosing, over good and true soldier applicants, men who have never smelt powder. Shame! "Give the soldiers a chance," is the voice of Congress and of the people. Indiscriminate removal of good and true men is a curse to any government. In eight years Washington only removed four men from office; Adams ten; Jefferson eight; Monroe nine; J. Q. Adams four. —The Reconstruction Committee have made a report.

"It consists of a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which contains four distinct provisions: 1. That no State shall abridge the privilege and immunities of citizens of the United States, nor deny to any within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the law; 2. That, whenever, in any State, the elective franchise shall be denied to any portion of its male citizens not less than twenty-one years of age, or in any way abridged except for participation in the rebellion as for other crimes, the basis of representation in such State shall be reduced in the proportion that the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens not less than twenty-one years of age; 3. That the principal civil and military officers of the late Confederacy shall be excluded from the right to vote for members of Congress, and President and Vice-President; and 4. That neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay debt or obligation already incurred, or which may hereafter be incurred, in aid of war or insurrection against the United States, or any claim for compensation or loss, for involuntary service or labor."

We heartily endorse the above as far as it goes. Universal amnesty and impartial suffrage would have pleased us better. But no right-minded man can object to an amendment which prevents a reconstructed rebel from wielding by his vote twice as much political power as a Michigan man. —Valparaiso, South America, has been bombarded by the Spaniards, and $20,000 worth of property destroyed. Great blame is said to be attached to the English Admiral. It was a terrible affair—the Peruvians are excited to the highest pitch. Not a whisper is breathed of yielding to Spain. —At a Cabinet meeting, Seward declared himself against the report of the Reconstruction Committee, and in favor of the immediate admission of the rebel States. Just what we expected from the old reprobate—McCulloch and Wells did not want to keep their places. But we are astonished at Stanton, if report is correct. The President is of course against it. The Cabinet is for the most part with the President. It is sweet to hold office. —Frank P. Blair's nomination for Collector of Revenues at St. Louis is rejected by the Senate. —The Senate and House have passed the bill for the admission of Colorado. —There has been a dastardly attempt to assassinate the Czar of Russia, Alexander, by an enemy of emancipation. 20,000,000 serfs owe their freedom to him.

Gold, 127 1/2.
The President stated in a recent message that the Southern Legislatures had enacted codes for the protection of the freedmen—hence the needlessness of any Freedman's Bureau or Civil Rights bill. Here is a specimen lately come to light—being Section 4 of an act passed by the Mississippi Legislature just before its adjournment—to show what kind of protection they think the freedmen require:

"Be it further enacted, That all the penal and criminal laws now in force in this State, defining offenses and prescribing the modes of punishment for crimes and misdemeanors committed by slaves, free negroes or mulattoes, be and the same are hereby re-enacted, and declared to be in full force and effect, against freedmen, free negroes, and mulattoes, except so far as the mode and manner of trial and punishment have been changed or altered by law."

INCREASE OF RATS.—The Farmers Gazette (England) asserts and proves by figures that one pair of rats will have a progeny and descendants not less than 651,050 in three years. Now unless this immense family can be kept down, they would consume more food than would sustain 651,050 human beings.

Home Enterprise.

The last few years have made vast improvement in furniture. Love of ease and luxury has been wonderfully pampered, we may safely say, satiated. And yet, it is a question whether the tired hunter, as he comes in from the hunt, would appreciate the civilized chair turned out by machinery, as much as the rude arm chair his great grandfather luxuriated in. By the way, speaking of chairs reminds us of one we saw in Massachusetts. Besides its form it was more a matter of curiosity from the fact that it contained one hundred different kinds of wood.
Here the product of home growth com-mingled with that of far off Indian and African countries. The distant islands of the sea contributed their quota to this marvellous chair, every kind of wood being simply varnished, thus showing its normal color. This chair was the ingenious work of a young man.

But we are wandering from our aim. On the south side of Congress St., the reader, looking up as he passes, can see the sign of Mc Andrews & Strawn. You need not guess the second time their business. In front are numerous evidences. Furniture on exhibition, and it may be a day, to carry off their furniture to adorn the parlor of some wealthy family. You enter, and here is presented to your view a rich assortment of common and general, as well as the higher orders of furniture. At the further end, on the left hand, we see cases for coffins. We never see these receptacles for the dead, without being reminded of death. They cast a momentary shadow over the mind. The grand truth "heaven's decree," sweeps over the mental vision.

"Our life's a dream—
An empty tale—a morning flower, Cut down and withered in an hour."
And yet, if prepared,
"Why should we start, and fear to die?
What terrors worms and mortals are!
Death is the gate to endless joy,
And yet we fear to enter there."

It is a comfort to respectfully and honorably bury our loved ones. We rob the dead in costly array—it is all that we can do. And here we find trimmings—from the finest cambric to the finest satin. Here also is a command a stylish hearse. But we will give these shadows the go-by, and turn to the wants of the living. Ascend to the second floor. Here are spacious rooms, filled with bedroom sets, from the the pious, stately make, down to the light and airy kinds—marble-top, centre and card tables—bookcases—bureaus—whatnots—common chairs, and all the intermediate grades up to the most costly styles—picture frames—in fact, everything in the furniture line, from a three dollar article to one costing as many hundreds. Leaving the sales room, we pass around on to Huron St., and on the west side is the place where, to quite an extent, this furniture is manufactured. The machinery is operated by horse power. There are eight persons engaged. It is a credit to Ypsilanti that much of the best furniture, bedroom sets, bureaus, sofas, &c., are manufactured at home. Let us build up and encourage home enterprise. Ypsilanti has the facilities, and can become the great manufacturing centre for this section of the State.

A Young Thief.
A small boy, apparently about twelve years old, lounged about Dr. Henry's grocery—Wishing to step out for a minute, the Dr. told him to leave, locking the front door, but unfortunately leaving the back door open.
The little culprit cut around and entered the back door, and when the Dr. returned, he found his money drawer open and minus $3.25. He started in pursuit but the boy had fled. There is a prospect of his exposure.

Field Record.
By the kindness of Capt. Spencer, we have on our table the "Field Record" of the officers of the Veteran Reserve Corps. "From it we quote:

"CLINTON SPENCER—Aged 25, from the State of Michigan, entered volunteer service April, 1861; took part in the battles of Bull Run, Gaines' Mills, Malvern Hill, 2nd Bull Run, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville and Gettysburg; lost his right leg by amputation, and the use of his right arm by maiming bullet. Entered the Veteran Reserve Corps June, 1864."

Base Ball.
Last Saturday the Peninsular (Union School club) and Normal clubs of this city, had a bout. The former came out ahead, the tally lists standing 26 to 13. Thursday afternoon the Defiance (citizens club) and the Peninsular tested their skill on the common. The lists stood at the end of the game, Union, boys 51—City boys 24. Pick your units and try again.

Just This Thing.
The grade on Cross St. East hill is being brought down to its true water level. It contributes much to the appearance of the street as the observer will notice in passing the middle bridge. Property holders over the hill may well shout:

Accident and Marvelous Escape.

Mr. S. Post's span of horses were being driven over the lower bridge, when the end board of the wagon dropped out. The teamster wound the lines around the stake and went back to pick it up (a careless trick on a bridge). The horses backed and this tightened the lines, so that they kept on backing.
A powerful team, they tore away the railings, and wagon and horses went over the north side of the bridge into the river. Probably one horse fell on the other and was thus saved from immediate death. The wagon, what remained of it, the dead horse and the living one, all floated down to within a few feet of the dam, the live horse keeping its head above water. The old scow was manned, but as it drew near, the horse made a desperate effort and floated over the dam near the west abutment. Here he was arrested by a rope being thrown around his head, and a rope, being attached to a man, he went out to cut the harness and encumbrances from him, and he was drawn into a place of safety. In spite of his hair breadth escapes, he will see good service yet. The lost animal was the most valuable. This team was bought a few months since of Professor Welch.

Rev. Wm. P. Pattison.

From a recent letter we extract the following, which will interest his friends in this city.
"On the second Sabbath of this month, I baptised fourteen persons in the Mississippi River. I have a large baptistry making thirty baptisms in all. The Post Commandant on Rock Island, an infidel, now hopefully converted, has taken Mrs. P.'s Bible class of young men. We have the largest Sabbath School in town. There has not been a general revival in the place. We have had some of the most interesting conversions I have ever known—most of them adults—six husbands and wives, four husbands, and four promising young men, two of whom have the ministry in view. Last Monday the church met and raised four hundred dollars to pay my rent in advance, three hundred to buy a lot for a parsonage, and again voted to add two hundred and fifty dollars to my salary."

Trade.

We notice that the merchants in our directory are bringing on a large stock of new goods. Mr. D. Showman, of the firm of Showman Bros., spent a number of days in New York, and availed himself of the best chances of the market. They are in receipt of a large and splendid stock. New advertisement will soon appear. A. Williams & Co. have introduced one of the best assortments of goods ever brought to this market.
Mr. Williams bought at low figures. Post and Cross are now in New York. All of the above firms defy competition.

Social Entertainment.

Next Tuesday evening, Prof. Pixley and Grannis will give a concert at the Methodist church for the benefit of the Sabbath School.
The object is a noble one. But above and beyond the object, all who go will have the pleasure of gratifying number one. We all love good songs, and when Professor Pixley sings we know that they will be good. "We come again with songs to greet you." Let us greet them with a large turn-out. Tickets 25 cents—in range of all.

Benevolence.

Last Sabbath $200 was taken up at the M. E. church, for foreign and home missions.
The Sabbath before, the Baptist church contributed $100 for a church edifice in Montcalm Co. Also several hundred dollars have been recently raised for Kalamazoo College and domestic missions. The Presbyterians, a few Sabbaths since, did munificently for the freedmen.

New Firm.

J. W. & H. Moulter have opened a Tobacco and Cigar Store in the Ormsby block, where they intend to keep the best of brands.
We are glad to see anything like classification of trade in our city, and those who will use the filthy weed will give them a call.

Young Men's Society.

A meeting of the members of the last Board of the late Young Men's Society was called on the 17th of April last. The ex-secretary sent out written notices to each individual member but a quorum failed to appear, consequently no action was had.

Poem.

On 1st page, of course all will read and show it to their friends. Also our new Railroad Advertisement. A few extra copies for sale.

Baptism.

Dr. Wm. Pattison, late of this city, was baptised into the Baptist church of Racine, Wis., on the 21st ult.

Wrong Corrected.

Our readers will notice in another column an article under this title, which corrects a gross misrepresentation in regard to the fair reputation of one of our former residents.

Capt. P. M. Skinner

Left last Tuesday morning to join the 18th U. S. Infantry. He has received an appointment as second lieutenant.

BLACK VALLEY RAILROAD.

1. From accurate estimates carefully made, in the U. S., it appears that this road is constantly carrying over 300,000 persons, mostly young men, down to a condition of common drunkards.

2. If the families of drunkards average five persons, it carries untold misery and wretchedness directly to more than 1,500,000 persons a large proportion of whom are women and children.

3. It keeps more than 200,000 in the alms house.

4. It keeps 75,000 criminals in prison.

5. It is carrying toward destruction multitudes of the brave and noble young men in our army.

6. It has carried down to disgrace, poverty, and destruction many of the most talented men of the country, from the Bar, the Bench, the Pulpit, and the halls of Congress.

7. It carries more than 50,000 into Eternity annually.

8. It carries more than 100,000,000 of Dollars to Destruction. A distinguished observer of facts says, "All the crimes on earth do not destroy so many of the human race, nor alienate so much property as drunkenness." 9. It is prosecuting its terrible business against the laws of God and man, and in defiance of all authority.

10. Its business is rapidly increasing.

Why, Missus, just look at these nice white clothes. I never had such soap to wash with before, and as long as you are my mistress, I hope you will never buy any other but the Gold Medal Soap.
It is so nice and pure, and washes so easy—just think of it—I am three hours ahead of the usual time, my clothes never begun to look half so well before, and thanks to the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap. Tell all your friends to try it, and they will never use any other. Most all grocers have it to sell.
